

Attractions and activities

Although all six hotels have all the facilities you need and are among the biggest in Norway with respect to capacity, large events may require the use of several hotels. This makes Bergen Flesland an attractive area as the hotels are situated very closely together. Popular social and cultural sights and attractions that attract visitors from all over the world, are also a short distance away.

Three of the hotels are in walking distance of the new Bergen Airport, Flesland. The three others are just a few kilometres away. Bergen Light Rail offers easy access to all the hotels and Bergen city centre. The hotels also offer their own transport services to and from the airport. There is also a transport service to Flesland quay, which is a stop for express boats in the region and a good starting point for excursions.
